SIFVAC HIGH-VACUUM SYSTEM 110/230v

EXT1SVAC

SUMMARY

The SifVac industrial high-vacuum system is an ideal modular unit that can be modified or purpose-built for specific applications to support the extraction of fumes and dust directly at the source.

TARGET APPLICATIONS

When used in combination with the SifGun Fume Extraction torch, the extraction of welding fumes and the filtration of particles not only allows you to maintain a clean working environment but also improves the safety of the operator by eliminating fumes before they enter the breathing zone.

FURTHER INFORMATION

The SifVac industrial high-vacuum system features a solid steel frame and can be equipped with either a single or double single-phase motor, or a brushless turbine motor providing a continuous rated and maintenance free solution. Inside the filter chamber is a large M-class filter with high filtration efficiency. The Dustop semi-automatic cleaning system filter allows the operator to clean the filter with ease by lifting the flap on the chamber. This simple operation allows the user to maintain the maximum filtering capacity and the best performance of the SifVac system.
